AUBUSSON, FIRST HALF OF 18TH CENTURY

THE ENTRANCE OF LOVE AND RICHES AND THE WEDDING CEREMONY OF GAMACHO.

Charles Antoine Coypel, made a numerous series of cartoons for the Royal Manufacture of the Gobelins, illustrating the story of Don Quixote. The series of cartoons is now in the Gallery of Compiegne. The tapestries of the Gobelins are recorded by Fenaille. As the technique of the present tapestry shows, it is not a work of the Gobelin manufacture, but of Aubusson. It is Number 20 of the series. It is not complete. The group of Sancho Pancha and four women to the left is missing. The tapestry shows in the foreground, to the right side, Don Quixote sitting near a tree. Before him stand three young women, in classical costume, one of them holding a cornucopia. Love, holding an arrow in his hand, speaks to a young girl who can be seen between a tresselated battlement of the castle of Prudence in the rear. Simple floral border of fine, subdued colors. Restoration to the left.

Size: 9 feet 6 inches x 9 feet 6 inches
